"The Mysore Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages Bill, 1956."

Mysore State Aid to Industries (Amendment) Bill, 1956.

Dr. R. NAGAN GOWDA (Minister for Industries and Excise).—I beg to introduce :

"The Mysore State Aid Industries (Amendment) Bill, 1956."

The Mysore Stamp (Amendment) Bill, 1956.

Dr. R. NAGAN GOWDA (Minister for Industries and Excise).—Sir, I beg to introduce :

"The Mysore Stamp (Amendment) Bill, 1956."

Bangalore Road Transport Service Bill, 1956.

*Sri H. SIDDAVEERAPPA (Minister for Home and Finance).—Sir, I beg to introduce :

"The Bangalore Road Transport Service Bill, 1956" Sir, I would like to request you and through you the House that in view of the urgency of this measure, as it has to become law by the end of this month and become operative by 1st October 1956, the usual period of notice may be waived and the House may be pleased to take this into consideration tomorrow. There is so much of urgency that no time lag is possible. I hope in this case an exception is made and the Hon'ble House would agree to waive the usual period of notice. This would be taken up tomorrow if the House agrees.

Sri V. M. MASCARENHAS (St. John's Hill).—Is not tomorrow too early ? Why not we take it up on Monday ?

Sri H. SIDDAVEERAPPA.—Sir, this measure will have to become law after receiving the assent of the President. The usual procedure is ; in view of the importance of the measure, it has to go before a Select Committee ; then, it will have to get its passage through both the Houses and then it would be submitted to the Rajpramukh for his approval. He, in the usual course, will have to send it for the assent of the President. Then, after notification, it will become law from the 1st October 1956 ; otherwise, there would be a hiatus created and there would be no transport service in Bangalore from 1st of October if this is not done. I therefore pray the House to waive the usual periods of notice as a special case. If we take it on 24th, we will have absolutely no time to go through all the procedures. I crave your indulgence and I pray you to agree with me.

Sri J. MOHAMED IMAM (Jagalur)—Sir, the Minister has made a special plea for condoning the period of notice. Taking the importance of the Bill into consideration and as the nationalisation of the B.T.C. is already over due, I have no serious objection to condone the period of notice. But, that should not be taken as a precedent for the future.

Sir, this is a very important measure, as was expressed by the Minister himself. Nothing prevented the Government from bringing this measure in the earlier session or they could have summoned the Legislature earlier. Because there was disharmony in the party, they did not do it and now they want to hustle through the Bill. Anyway, I hope this should not be taken as a precedent and Government may be vigilant and all important measures should be brought before the House in proper time.

Mr. SPEAKER.—The Bill will be taken up tomorrow. Now, consideration of Bills.
